Miguel Bombarda's Apartments

Right in the heart of the city, Miguel Bombarda's apartments focus on the dynamics that city life gives us and the new solutions we can provide for new realities. Changing our way of being, traveling, and enjoying more and more the ephemeral passages that places allow us.

Inspired by the seasons of the year, the ephemerality, and the sensations they transmit to us, each space exudes and transports us to each of them. To a boreal spring with vibrant foliage and flowers in full bloom, to the warm winds of a summer night. To cozy autumn, where the sun's rays comfort the yellowish leaves at the end of their life, fallen by the sidewalks, and to the greyish and cold air of winter mornings.

The ephemerality of nature and off our times.
